

AMRIA

ABN 55 614 657 270.

Australian Metal Recycling Industry Association
Incorporated under the Associations Incorporation Act 1984

Code of Conduct

1. Maintain a high standard of commercial conduct and business ethics with other members, customers and suppliers. This includes the honoring of all contracts and commitments freely entered into, in particular the observance of both quantity and quality.
2. Represent the common interests of the industry in their relations with suppliers, consumers, local authorities and government departments.
3. Observe the highest practical standards of environmental care and protection.
4. Ensure adequate insurance cover is maintained for public and employee liability, and for other statutory requirements.
5. Ensure strict adherence to relevant State Department of Occupational Health and Safety regulations.
6. Compliance with all Federal/State laws and regulations.